DISASTER RECOVERY CENTERS IN DODGE AND WINNEBAGO COUNTIES TO CLOSE MONDAY

SBA Workshops to open in several locations

The joint FEMA/State Disaster Recovery Centers operating in Dodge Co. (Randolph) and Winnebago Co. (Oshkosh) will close permanently at 7 p.m. on Monday, July 5.

Those affected by the disaster who still have questions about assistance or low-interest disaster loans can call the toll-free application line – 1-800-621-FEMA (3362) – or visit the Disaster Recovery Center in Ozaukee Co. (Port Washington) open on Monday and Tuesday, July 5 and 6. The number for those with hearing or speech impairment is 1-800-462-7585. Disaster Recovery Centers have been open in several disaster-declared areas to offer disaster victims an opportunity to meet face-to-face with recovery specialists.

To assist people in filling out their loan applications, the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA) will open SBA workshops and provide loan officers at sites in Jefferson, Kenosha and Fond du Lac Counties, starting on Tuesday, July 6. A FEMA representative will also be on hand at the SBA workshops to answer any questions about disaster assistance programs. The SBA workshop operating hours are 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, until further notice, and they will be located at the sites listed below:
